

Dieter Schoon new head of Human Resources at itelligence AG

Bielefeld, August 19, 2004 - Dieter Schoon, 39, has been appointed itelligence AG's head of Human Resources effective August 19, 2004. In this position he will oversee the Bielefeld-based consultancy's domestic and international HR activities. Dieter Schoon joins itelligence from Dresden-based chipmaker AMD Saxony LLC & Co. KG where he was in charge of HR planning and HR development for all organizational areas of the two new AMD chip factories in Dresden.

Dieter Schoon studied psychology at Otto-Friedrich-Universität in Bamberg and looks back on many years of experience as a consultant, including international HR projects with the renowned Cap Gemini Ernst & Young consultancy in Britain, France and in Switzerland.

"Apart from excellent SAP know-how and sector-specific expertise, clients will increasingly expect their consultants to display leadership abilities in the future. This is why employee training and skill development will become ever more important going forward," Dieter Schoon describes his outlook on his new position.
